The grade cutoff for each exam is based on the baseline (BL) which is the second highest score for the exam, although the instructor reserves the right to change the baseline. Your raw scores is divided by the BL to determine the percentage figure.

The "A" exams are open-book take-home format while the "B" exams are in-class closed-book format. A double underline indicates that a late penalty deduction of 10% of the baseline has been assessed. There is no penalty for the first late exam (score with slash mark).

This is the # of times attendance has been taken. The column above it indicates the percentage of those times you were present. See the Attendance Table on the other side for your attendance record.

This is the total baseline thus far in the course (Exams + Quizzes + Attendance + extra credit). An "A" will be equal to at least 90% of the baseline; B = 80-89%; C = 70-79%; D = 60-69%; and less than 60% = F.
